Insurance Law Seminar October 7, 2011 LSU Law Center

You won't want to miss this timely program for lawyers of all experience levels. A broad array of important insurance law topics will be discussed by federal and state judges and leading experts from the bar. The program will also include a discussion on how to avoid the expensive consequences of non-compliance of the Medicare Mandatory Insurer Reporting and Secondary Payer regulations by two executives from Gould & Lamb, an industry leader in Medicare compliance services, having successfully completed over 80,000 Medicare Set Asides and recently signed contracts with all of the Managing Agents within the Lloyd's of London insurance market to provide mandatory insurer reporting services.
